Military Motorcycle

WAR has brought the use of the motorcycle into the fray. Now every European nation has scores of motorcycle riders, many of whom are armed. Already the United States Government is equipping men, especially the messenger service, with motorcycles. What is known as the Militaire Motorcycle is shown here. It carries a pair of extra side wheels on the rear wheel which may be dropped to hold the machine in an upright position when the rider stops. This permits him to stop or start wherever he may be, whether it is on a hill, on muddy or wet ground or on any ordinary stretch of good road where any machine may be started with a little kick from the foot of the rider.

Sinclair Creditors to Decide Action

Truck Contract with Government Awaits Decision—Were De- veloping New Car

NEW YORK, Aug. 4—New York creditors of the Sinclair Motors Corp. met here yesterday to discuss the affairs of the company and adjourned to attend a general meeting of creditors which will be held at Springfield, Mass., Aug. 6. The company has a contract from the Government to build 75 Militor trucks and it is understood an effort will be made to provide funds for the completion of this work. It also manufactures Militor motorcycles and was preparing to bring out a passenger car. Its financial difficulties are understood to be due in part to the fact that large sums have been spent in experimental and development work. Early in the year it was announced the company's program contemplated the manufacture of 20,000 motorcycles this year.

The Sinclair Motors Corp. is a re-organization of the Militor Motors Co., which was a merger of the Knox Motors Co. and the Militor Corp. Knox Motors took over the property of the Knox Automobile Co., which was sold in bankruptcy in 1914. The original Militor Corp. was organized for the production of war vehicles for the Government. In its extensive laboratories at Jersey City were developed the Militor motorcycle and the Militor standardized four-wheel drive truck. The present plant is located at Springfield.

An attachment was filed last week by the Knox Motors Co. against Neil R. Sinclair, the Sinclair Motors, and Edward McMills of Buffalo, for $75,000. The action was brought to recover on $62,000 of notes indorsed by Sinclair and McMills.
